

Subject web application: webstutter

Webstutter is a small web application, containing one java servlet. It allows users to enter strings and check for repeated words. The system prompts the users with any repeated words on each line.

Specific requirements

Functional requirements

Use Case Name: webstutter
Use Case ID: webstutter-1
Actors: web user
Brief Description: The system allows users to enter strings to check for repeated words on each line.
Pre-Conditions: None.
Main Flow of Events: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. User enters strings.2. User presses the 'Submit' button.3. The system checks for repeated words on each line.4. The system displays line numbers along with repeated words found.
Post-Conditions: The system displays line numbers and repeated words found.
Alternative Flows and Exceptions: None.
Assumptions: None.

Other Requirements

Requirement ID	Requirement
SRS_01	The system shall allow users to enter multiple lines of strings.
SRS_02	The system shall allow users to enter strings regardless languages.